

ON MY KNEES

On my knees...
Not because I'm weak,
Not because I deserve anything,
Not because I'm crazy,
Not because I can't stand,
Not because You make me do so.

On my knees...
Because that's where I meet you,
That's where I find forgiveness,
That's where Your strength is found,
That's where Your power surges through me,
That's where I die and You live.

On my knees...
Because that's where there's answers,
That's where there's hope,
That's where there's victory,
That's where there's endless light,
That's where there's indescribable joy.

On my knees...
Because there's a friend to pray for,
a spouse,
a child,
a church,
a pastor.

On my knees...
Because there's a battle to fight,
There are people who need help,
There's warfare on every side.

On my knees...
To bring You glory,
To bring You honor,
To bring You praise,
To bring You thanks.

On my knees...
Because the victory is Yours,
my Lord, Redeemer, Savior and King.

On my knees...
Because there's no place I'd rather be.
